BOTH SIDES.

A man in his carriage was riding along
A gaily dressed wife by his side;
In satin and laces she looked like a queen,
And he like a king in his pride.

A wood sawyer stood on the street as they passed,
The carriage and couple he eyed,
And said, as he worked with his saw on the log,
"I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in his carriage remarked to his wife;
One thing I would give if I could—
I would give all my wealth for the strength and the health.
Of the man who saweth the wood.

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,
Whose face as the morning was fair,
Went tripping along with a smile of delight,
While humming a love breathing air.

She looked on the carriage—the lady she saw,
Arrayed in apparel so fine,
And said, in a whisper, "I wish from my heart,
Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work,
So fair in a calico dress,
And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth,
Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in this world, whatever our lot,
Our minds and our time we employ
In longing and sighing for what we have not,
Ungrateful for what we enjoy.
We welcome the pleasure for which we have sighed;
The heart has a void in it still,
Growing deeper and wider the longer we live,
That nothing but heaven can fill.

SEPTEMBER.

When the bright Virgin gives the beauteous days,
And Libra weighs in equal scales the year;
From Heaven's high cope the fierce effulgence shook
Of parting Summer, a serener blue,
With golden light enlivened, wide invests
The happy world. Attempered suns arise,
Sweet beamed, and shedding oft through lucid clouds
A pleasing calm; while broad, and brown, below
Extensive harvests hang the heavy head.
Rich, silent, deep, they stand: for not a gale
Rolls its light billows o'er the bending plain;
A calm of plenty! THOMSON.

Autumn is rightly entitled "beauteous days," and we are happy for once to agree with the poet. Whether the virgin, among the constellations has anything to do in bestowing these days or not, there can be no doubt, as to the superlative beauty of the gift. They are more charming to all the senses, than any other days of the year. There is a delightful freshness about the early Spring, and coming out from the inclement skies of Winter, we admire the bright mornings, the grass, the budding willows, and the bashful violets on the south side of walls. But the weather is fickle, and the pleasure of the observer is marred by an involuntary sympathy with the fair fledglings of Spring, lest they should perish in their too early advent. Summer comes with its gorgeous drapery, its flaunting flowers and full foliage. But now the heat parches field and forest, the leaves droop, and the beauty of the flowers hardly lingers for an hour. Everything is pushing on to maturity in such hot haste, that we involuntarily catch the spirit of the season.

But in this favored month, we have "attempered suns," and out door life is never so enjoyable as now. Every sense is pleased. Pomona, with a bounty more prodigal than all the virgins among the stars, pours golden fruits from her plenteous horn, so tempting to the taste, as to make the ambrosial feasts of the gods no longer coveted. After a dish of melting pears or a bunch of Muscats from the vinery, we always fall into a fit of compassion for the deities, and the old heathen generally, who could not afford any thing better than ambrosia, for the best of their gods. Common mortals now can boast of something very much better.

To us, there is a peculiar charm about the skies of September, so that, were there no other harvests than those we are permitted to gather above the earth, we should rejoice in it, above all other months of the year. The world is said to have been finished in this month, and the old Hebrews did well to commemorate creation's prime, by making it the beginning of their civil year. It is a better type of the world when "all was very good" than any other period. It is a time of maturity in the heavens above us, and in the earth and sea around us.

Look upward and behold the peerless azure of the skies, as the fleecy clouds go floating by, like rich argosies upon the fathomless deep, or watch the declining sun, lighting up the clouds with all the colors of the rainbow, with scenes and hues shifting as in some scene of enchantment. Now he disappears behind the dark folds, and along the glittering edge, in clear contrast with the darkness, a line of gold appears too brilliant to gaze upon. Now he emerges for a moment in all his splendor, and throws his beams aslant the gazing earth.—Every dwelling on the eastern hills is lit up with new splendors, as his parting beams come streaming from every pane in the windows.—Now his burning disc has sunk beneath the horizon, and the sky is all a flame with richest crimson. Slowly the colors fade, shading off into the deep grey of twilight, until darkness veils the scene. We have fine sunsets occasionsally at other seasons of the year, but they only reach their climax in this month.

But we are not constrained to reap our harvests alone in the skies. The earth is beautiful, with her maturest charms, like the fully developed beauty of the mother. Look into the orchard, and fruit yard, now, to behold the crowning grace of the year. The pear and apple trees, with their snowy and pink blossoms, were a charming sight in May. But now there is a richer green upon the foliage, and amid the dark masses of leaves, fruit of all hues are clustering. Here are the crimson Baldwins, and Spitzenbergs, the white Porters and Sweetings, the fair Lady Apple, and Maiden's blush, true to their names, the purple Gilliflowers and Pearmains, and among the pears, the golden Bartletts, and Virgalieus, the Flemish Beauties tinged with red and russet, kings and queens, dukes and duchesses, rivaling their namesakes, for rich attire. The very air is laden with the perfume of their melting juices. No goblet was ever crowned with so delicious nectar as lurks beneath the tempting skin.

Here in a more secluded nook, we come to the plums; the Washington, worthy the name of the Father of his country, the Jefferson sound in flavor as the doctrines of the Sage of Monticello, the Green Gage, with nothing green about it but its color, the Golden Drops almost too good to sell for gold, the pink, crimson, yellow, and purple, and over all that bloom dust which lingers like the soft haze, with which the artist obscures his brightest creations of angelic beauty.

In the vinery, art helps nature a little, and the combined product of the sun and the glass is those bunches of grapes, surpassing all that Eschol in its palmiest days ever boasted.—How much there is of romance in that old picture of the spies bearing the clusters upon a stick between the two, we were never able to determine. The object we imagine to have been, safe carrying, rather than to show the enormous size of the clusters. We have seen not a few clusters that a good many ordinary couples of men would not want to carry, if they have to pay for them before starting—bunches weighing six or eight pounds, and worth twice as many dollars, at the market price. Nothing can exceed the beauty of the roof of a vinery, well loaded with Black Hamburg, Muscats, Frontignans, and the princely Cannon Hall. Tested by the grosser sense of taste, they are hard to beat, and not at all bad to take. The cultivation of this excellent fruit, both in the open air, and under glass, is making rapid progress among us. A grapery is becoming almost an indespensable appendage of a gentleman's country seat, and even men of moderate means, who can give but a few hundred dollars to fruit culture, are indulging in this luxury.

Beautiful as these September days are, it is in the power of almost every one of our readers to add to their charms, around his own home. Another Isabella or Concord running along the south side of the house or barn, and hanging out their purple clusters, would make weather beaten boards, even, look very tempting. A few more Bartletts, or Flemish Beauties, in the back yard, or fruit garden would be something to make the early dawn look very pleasant to the children. The laggard at the trees in the morning would deem himself to have lost a goodly sight. The time of tree planting is not far ahead. Shall we visit the nurseries and make the Septembers of the future a little more beautiful?

☞We have the most cheering accounts of the Democracy in the western counties of this State. As the time approaches for deciding the political complexion of the State, the earnest, honest working men of the party do not hesitate to declare all past differences forgotten, and express a willingness to co-operate for the election of the State ticket. This is as it should be, and we hail the return of friendly feeling as a certain harbinger of success. We have not, at the present moment, a particle of doubt of the triumphant election of the ticket, which, we confess, was not our opinion six weeks ago.—Pitts. Post.

THE RIP RAPS OF BALTIMORE.

In another column will be found a terrible account of butchery, plunder and rapine, committed by the "Rip Raps" of Baltimore, on board one of the steamers taking passengers from that city to a Camp Meeting near Lloyd's Springs. Shortly after the steamer had passed Fort Henry, the Rip Raps and some other gangs of outlaws rallied upon a certain signal, and first commenced an onslaught upon some colored people. The other passengers alarmed, made application to the captain, profferring their aid and assistance to put down the riot and secure the ringleaders, but strange to say, the valiant Captain refused to interfere. The scene which now ensued baffles description. The row dies went down into the forward saloon, falling like wild beasts upon the passengers, sparing neither women nor children. The people were robbed of their money, watches and other valuables, and those who resisted were stabbed with dirk knives, struck down with clubs, and one of the women was violated before the eyes of her husband, whom a number of dastardly assailants held down while they rifled his pockets.

That such outrages should be possible on board of a steamer with from 300 to 400 people on board, is surpassing strange. It not only shows how lamentably helpless an American crowd is, but it also shows the extreme audacity of outlaws, the utter contempt in which the law is held, and what fearful progress we are making towards complete anarchy. These are the legitimate fruits of Know-Nothingism; the logical, unavoidable consequences of an association managed by dark-lantern conspirators, and pledged to the support of its members under any circumstances whatsoever, even if these members should be guilty of the most heinous crimes. This faction rules in Baltimore—rules the State of Maryland.

They have their Know-Nothing Governor. The Mayor of Baltimore is a Know-Nothing, the policemen are Know-Nothings, every officer in the State almost belongs to that ill-favored faction. And this may perhaps explain the conduct of the Captain, who, employed to protect the passengers entrusted to his charge, saw them butchered in his presence without even raising his voice against the outrage. It may explain the fact that when the steamer arrived at Cambridge, only four arrests were made by the authorities of that town, out of three different numerous gangs of rowdies.—These officers hold their places by the votes of the Rip Raps; they are afraid of the Rip Raps. The Rip Raps terrorize over poor distracted Baltimore. They commit piracy on board of her steamers; they shoot down peaceable citizens who desire to exercise the right of freemen at the polls, occasionally falling upon their own tribe like sharks and jackals.

When the riff-raff of Jedda, or of any other obscure place on the barbarous coasts of Asia or Africa, occasionally get up a row and murder a Christian, our newspapers all over the land set up a tremendous clamor. The government is urged to equip a squadron, arm it with our most formidable guns, and send it out to to take summary vengeance on the heathen rabble. When the Mediterranean was infested by pirates, and an unfortunate merchantman was now and then laid under contribution by the riff-raff of Algiers, Tunis and Tripoli, we despatched COMMODORE DECATUR to bombard these strongholds, decimate the riff-raff, and render the highways of sea secure to the world of commerce. This was all right, but how long will we allow Christians to be murdered in our own cities, and piracy to be committed on our coasts and rivers by Baltimore Rip Raps? The respectable portion of the community in Baltimore are afraid of these Rip Raps; they evidently cannot help themselves. Why do not the newspapers call upon the General Government to send them for their protection a naval squadron and a few companies of dragoons?

WHAT AM I GOING TO DO?—One afternoon a boy saw a person drop his purse. He picked it upand put it in his pocket, and was walking off with it. "What am I going to do?" came into his mind; and the answer followed:—"I am going away with a purse of money that does not belong to me. This is not honest; I shall be a thief if I do so. God has said "Thou shalt not steal." In another moment he ran after the person and gave up the purse.

"What am I going to do?" asked a boy who took his fishing tackle instead of his books and was stealing out of the back door of his father's house. "I am going to play truant, deceive my parents, neglect my school, and go in the company of bad boys." The case looked a bad one, he turned about, put away his fishing tackle, found his satchel and run off to school.

These boys were saved from much evil by stopping to think. Solomon says, "Ponder the path of thy feet."

☞A tipsy loafer mistook a globe lamp with letters on it, for the queen of night: "I'm blessed," said he, "if somebody haint stuck in advertisement on the moon!"

MORE BALTIMORE ROWDYISM—DREADFUL RIOT ON A STEAMBOAT.

[From the Baltimore Sun of Aug. 23.]

On Saturday night the steamer Express left this city for Lloyd's Springs camp-meeting, on the Choptank river, with between three hundred and four hundred passengers on board. Shortly after passing Fort McHenry it became evident that there would be trouble on board, and alarm took hold of the passengers. Before reaching the Bodkin, a party of disorderly men, who rallied under the cries of Eubolts, Ranters and Rip Raps, went forward and made an attack on the colored people, who occupied that part of the boat. At first they amused themselves by knocking down the males and females of the colored passengers, when application was made to the captain to take some measures to put a stop to them. Nothing was done, and after a time the disorderly disposed went down in the forward saloon, where several colored men had taken refuge. The assailants approached a man, and one of them stabbed him in four places in the side and chest. They then blew out all the lights in the saloon, and began an indiscriminate attack on white and colored. Mr. Jeremiah Slaughter was robbed of $28. Mr. William D. Glass was robbed of $20, and another party was robbed of a valuable gold watch and chain.

There being no prospect of any more booty in the saloon, the disorderlies again went on deck, and blowing out all the lights, went to the forward part of the boat again, among the colored people. One man and his wife were standing together near the bow, and thought they would escape observation. The man, however, was knocked down, and he was held while his pockets were rifled of all they contained. He was then stabbed several times, and his wife, who had witnessed the whole proceeding, was outraged in his presence, while she vainly cried for help. Some of the passengers again called on the officers of the committee who had chartered her, and volunteered, if called on to quell the riot, to confine the disturbers of the peace in the hold, until the boat should return to the city. The attack was continued until several colored men were severely stabbed, and a much larger number horribly beaten. Among those that were stabbed was a man employed as a drayman by Mr. Welch, in south street, one by Messrs. Smith & Edmonson, on Cheapside, and one by Messrs. T. T. Martin & Bro., on Calvert street. Who the others were was not ascertained, but it was said one of them died from the effects of his wounds. About daylight on Sunday morning the boat approached Cambridge, and the captain, at the request of the passengers, landed at that town.

Sheriff Vickers, of Dorchester county, was notified of the outrages that had been committed, and summoning two or three of his deputies, proceeded to the wharf for the pupose of arresting the guilty parties. At first they defied his authority, but he called on some of the passengers who had witnessed the whole of the riot, and some four of the party were taken from the boat.

Two of them gave their names as Skinner and Robison, but the names of the others were not ascertained.

They were taken before Justice Robert R. Rolinson, of Cambridge, and Charles Goldsborough, Esq., the Prosecuting Attorney, appeared on the part of the State. The whole of them were committed to jail for trial at the approaching term of the Circuit Court for that county.—The boat then proceeded to the camp-meeting, where the police force was so strong that no attempt was made to create disorder on the ground. They left again on Sunday afternoon for this city, but several of the passengers were obliged to stop in Cambridge, because their lives were threatened, and came up in the Kent yesterday afternoon. While the Express was on the way up to the city, an attack was made on the engineer, who escaped by locking himself up in his room, his assailants threatening to throw him overboard. The whole affair is represented by those who witnessed it as having been most fearful. Females were thrown into consternation, and the rioters were appealed to for their sakes to desist, but they paid no heed to it.

CHARACTER OF A COQUETTE.

The coquette who courts every man, and the modest woman whom every man courts, are certainly two distinct creatures. The one may please us but the other exacts our homage. The one attracts our fancy, like a butterfly, the other excites our love—she is a precious gem. The one we long to waste time with; the other we desire to possess. If every woman who plays the coquette's part, could only truthfully ascertain, and clearly analyze, the sentiments she inspires in the bosom of those she labors so diligently to captivate, we are afraid that she would look on mankind with disgust, and her own sex with detestation. If any such read this paragraph, let them remember it.

DIPPING CHARLES LAMB.

"Coleridge," says De Quincy, "told me a ludicrous embarrassment which Lamb's stammering caused him at Hastings. Lamb had been medically advised to a course of sea bathing; and accordingly, at the door of his bathing machine, whilst he stood shivering with cold, two stout fellows laid hold of him, one at each shoulder, like heraldic supporters; they waited for the word of command from their principal who began the following oration to them:—

"Hear me, men! Take notice of this; I am to be dipped—"

What more he would have said is unknown to land or sea bathing machines: for having reached the word dipped, he commenced such a rolling fire di-di-di-di-di, that when at length he descended, a plomb upon the fell word dipped, the two men, rather tired of the suspense, became satisfied that they had reached what lawyers call the "operative" clause of the sentence, and both exclaiming at once—

"Oh yes, sir, we're quite aware of that," and down they plunged him into the sea.

On emerging, Lamb sobbed so much from the cold that he found no voice suitable to his indignation; from necessity he seemed tranquil: and again addressing the men, who stood respectfully listening, he began thus:—

"Men, is it possible to obtain your attention?"

"O surely sir, by all means."

"Then listen: once more I tell you I am to be di-di-di—and then with a burst of indignation, "dipped, I tell you—"

"O decidedly, sir." And down the stammerer went for the second time.

Petrified with cold and wrath, once more Lamb made a feeble attempt at explanation.

"Grant me pa-patience; is it mum-murder you me-me-mean? Again and a-ga-ga-gain I tell you I'm to be di-di-dipped,"—now speaking seriously, with the voice of an injured man.

"Oh yes, sir," the men replied, "we know that—we fully understand it;" and, for the third time, down went Lamb into the sea.

"Oh, limbs of Satan!" he said on coming up for the third time, "it's now too late. I tell you that I am—no, I was to be di-di-di-dipped only once."

THE INVISIBLE ARMOR.

General Schuyler was one of the American officers in the army which fought for our freedom. He figured largely in those stirring scenes which took place on the Hudson and Mohawk rivers, when the English Generals hired the Indians to come and fight on their side. General Schuyler had great influence with the red men; they loved and feared him; so the English wished he was out of the way, and as he did not get shot on the field of battle, a plot was hatched to waylay and murder him.

Two men were picked out to do this deed, an Englishman and an Indian. The day and time were set; they shouldered their rifles and took their stand behind a clump of trees which he had to pass by on his way home. After waiting and watching some time, the General hove in sight. He was on horseback and alone.—Now or never! They took aim. In a minute more, the General would have been a dead man. At that instant, the Indian knocked down the Englishman's gun, crying: "I cannot kill him; I have eaten his bread too often." The General rides on unharmed; he has buckeled on an invisible armor stronger than brass, and he is safe. What was it? The armor of friendly actions. The General had often relieved the distresses of the poor red men; he had fed them when hungry, and clothed them when naked; and now British gold cannot buy up the grateful memory of his kindness, as it melts the murderer's heart.

"I can't kill him; I have eaten his bread too often!"

Oh, what power there is in friendly actions. They not only make you friends, but disarm your enemies. Remember, boys, they may defend you when a great name, a stout arm, a brave arm, a good rifle, a fleet horse can avail you not. Think of this.—Child's Paper.

A NEGRO REPRESENTATIVE.

We learn from our Ohio exchanges, says the Genius of Liberty, that it is seriously contemplated by the Republicans of Oberlin, Ohio, to elect Langston, A NEGRO, to Legislature. This Langston is the darkey who figured so conspicously in the recent rescue cases in Ohio, when the Federal officers were resisted in their execution.

This active support of what Giddings defines to be the cardinal article in the Republican creed—viz: resistance to the United States laws—together with the fact that he is a negro, are, we presume, Langston's chief recommendations to the Ohio Republicans.

☞Two distinguished philosophers took shelter under one tree during a heavy shower. After some time, one of them complained that he felt the rain. "Never mind," replied the other, "there are plenty of trees; when this one is wet through we will go to another."

POWER OF IMAGINATION.

Dr. Noble, in a very able and analytic lecture at Manchester, "On the Dynamic Influence of Ideas," told a good anecdote of Mr. Boutihouse a French savant, in illustration of the power of imagination. As Dr. Noble says:—"M. Boutihouse served in Napoleon's army, and was present at many engagements during the early part of the last century. At the battle of Wagram, in 1809, he was engaged in the fray; the ranks around him had been terribly thinned by shot, and at sunset he was nearly insulated. While reloading his musket he was shot down by a cannon ball. His impression was that the ball had passed through his legs below his knees, separated them from the thighs; for he suddenly sank down, shortened, as he believed, to the extent of about a foot in measurement. The trunk of the body fell backwards on the ground, and the senses were completely paralyzed by the shock. Thus he lay motionless among the wounded and dead during the rest of the night, not daring to move a muscle lest the loss of blood should be fatally increased. He felt no pain, but this he attributed to the stunning effect of the shock to the brain and nervous system. At early dawn he was aroused by one of the medical staff who came round to help the wounded. 'What's the matter with you, my good fellow?' said the surgeon. 'Ah! touch me tenderly,' replied M. Boutihouse, 'I beseech you; a cannon ball has carried off my legs.' The surgeon examined the limbs referred to, and then, giving him a good shake, said, with a joyous laugh, 'Get up with' you, you have nothing the matter with you.'

M. Boutihouse immediately sprang up in utter astonishment, and stood firmly on the legs he thought he had lost forever. 'I felt more thankful,' said M. Boutihouse, 'than I had ever been in the whole course of my life before. I had, indeed, been shot down by an immense cannon ball; but instead of passing through the legs, as I firmly believed it had, the ball had passed under my feet, and had ploughed a hole in the earth beneath, at least a foot in depth, into which my feet suddenly sank, giving me the idea that I had been thus shortened by the loss of my legs.

The truth of this story is vouched for by Dr. Noble.

MIDNIGHT.—Not a breath is heard, all is still save the winds of September. The temporary wand of oblivion is spread o'er the earth—men have ceased from their toil, and gently recline in the arms of the God of Sleep. The song of the feathered warbler is not heard—the hum of the busy-bee is hushed. The voice of the night-wind only is heard speaking in the language of another sphere. The keeper of the midnight vigil listens to the voice of some loved one early exhaled from earth to Heaven, and it re-awakes in his bruised and sorrow-stricken heart the sympathies that were once garnered up in his memory. Blessed hour! that drives the clamor of the world from the loved retirement of those who are sick, sick of its commerce, its heartlessness, and its follies, and opens to their aching vision a pathway, where the foot of the sensualist never trod. Even now we feel its influence stealing o'er us, like the soft expiring notes of the lute, as they die away on the zephyr——and——we will go to sleep and dream of——the blessedness of that man who never defrauded the Printer!

TALL LEAPING.

"Bill, do you see those two houses?"

"I do."

"Well, Bill, perhaps, you won't believe me, but—you see those two houses?"

"Certainly I see them."

"I can take my boots off and jump over them."

"Over those two houses! Get out!"

"I say I can take my boots off and jump over them."

"Over your boots! Humph! so can I. Jim I'm some at jumping. I can leap higher than a meeting-house."

"Higher than a meeting house! A meeting-house is pretty high."

"But I can leap higher than a meeting-house."

"No, you can't."

"I can leap higher than a meeting-house—how high do you think a meeting-house can leap, Jim?"

"Get out, Bill."

☞At a railway station an old lady said to a very pompous looking gentleman, who was talking about steam communication:

"Pray, sir, what is steam?"

"Steam, maam, is, ah!—steam is—oh! ah!—steam is—steam!"

"I knew that chap couldn't tell ye," said a rough looking fellow standing by; "but steam is a bucket of water in a tremendous perspiration."

☞A "wee bit of a boy" astonished his mother a few days since. She had occasion to chastise him slightly for some offence he had committed. Charley sat very quietly in his chair for some time afterwards, no doubt thinking very profoundly. At last he spoke out thus: "Muzzer, I wish pa'd git anozzer housekeeper, I've got tired of seeing you round!"

☞A little girl about two and a half years old, seeing the elephant attached to the circus pass by the house, asked her mother, who was standing by, "what that great India-rubber thing was, walking in the street, with two tails."

☞"If you call this skinning," said Tom to the barber, "it's not so bad; but if you call it shaving, I should prefer your using the other side of the razor."

☞Moses, seeing a chap hoeing and another mowing, in the same field, remarked that these occupations were decidedly hoe-mow-genous.

OUR TICKET COMPLETE.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic Legislative Conference of this district, published in another column, it will be seen that GEO. W. GUMP, ESQ., of this county, and Gen. A. H. COFFROTH, of Somerset, have been put in nomination as the candidates of the Democracy of Bedford and Somerset, for members of the next Legislature. They are both good men and sound Democrats. Mr. Gump is a man who was born and reared among the people of this county, a hard-fisted, hard-working farmer, but a man of superior intelligence, strictly honest in his dealings, social in his disposition, and a Democrat who has helped to fight full many a battle under the flag of our party. He has many warm friends in this county, as well as in Somerset, and will certainly receive a heavy vote.

Of the candidate presented by the Democracy of Somerset, Gen. Coffroth, it is scarcely necessary to speak, as he is well known to the citizens of this county, as a man of fine abilities, an able lawyer, a good speaker, and an ardent and enthusiastic Democrat. His best recommendation is the fact that he is popular in his own county, and that even his political opponents who know him intimately, are compelled to acknowledge his talents and worth. His name is a tower of strength to our ticket, and if the Democracy of this Legislative District but do their duty, both he and his colleague, Mr. Gump, will be triumphantly elected.

The nomination of Messrs. Gump and Coffroth completes our ticket. Our candidates are now all in the field, and a better ticket than ours, from Auditor General down to County Auditor, we venture to say, has never been nominated by any party. It becomes us now, as true Democrats, to go to work at once to secure the election of that ticket. It becomes us to throw aside all personal differences and dislikes, to disregard all the favors, as well as the threats, of those who are laboring to defeat it, and to rally around the men who compose it, determined to stand by our principles and to win a glorious victory for the measures and men of the Democratic party.

A DELIBERATE FORGERY.

The Abolition Amalgamationists defend Mr. Williams' vote on the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks, on the ground that that bill was made to apply to "yellow" or "colored," persons as well as to the jet black negro. Drowning men will catch at straws, and if Mr. Williams' party friends are satisfied with this impotent excuse, they must be easily pleased. They should bear in mind however, that the pleading of such an excuse, makes the admission that Williams is in favor of the intermarriage of whites and mulattos.—Let this be remembered, that so far as the mulattos are concerned, Williams' attorney pleads guilty. But the assertion that the bill was made to apply to "yellow," or "colored," persons, is untrue, and those words are fraudulently interpolated into the Bill, by Mr. Williams' newspaper defender. The insertion of those words in the Bill, is a deliberate forgery, as we can prove by the Record. There was an effort made to "tack" an amendment to the Bill, for the purpose of making it apply to "yellow," or "colored," persons, but it did not succeed. The Bill as voted upon by Mr. Williams, related simply to whites and blacks. In proof of this we refer our readers to the Legislative Record, for the session of 1859, page 376.

☞The Buchanan Club will meet at the Court House, on Saturday evening next. Several speeches will be made on the occasion. Turn out, Democrats of Bedford borough! An important election is drawing nigh, and it is our duty to organize. Come, one and all!

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!

The principles of the Democracy reaffirmed!

Abolition-Negroism rebuked and denounced!

According to previous announcement, the Democracy of Bedford county assembled in Mass Meeting, at the Court House, in Bedford, on Monday evening, the 29th ult., and on motion of Hon. W. T. Daugherty, organized by the appointement of the following officers:

President,

HON. JOS. B. NOBLE.

Vice Presidents,

Samuel Defibaugh,	Geo. Beckley
T. W. Horton, Esq.,	Wm. Berkheimer,
Elias Gump, Esq.,	Dr. C. Olleig,
A. Perdew, Esq.,	M. Fluke, Esq.,
Nicholas Boor,	Jos. Crisman, Esq.
Jacob Devore,	John B. Fluke, Esq.
Geo. Elder,	Cad. Evans,
John S. Schell,	E. Foster, Esq.,
Wm. Rock,	Nicholas Koons,

Lewis N. Fyan.

Secretaries,

Thos. Donahoe,	Jere. Thompson,
John P. Mors,	Robert Elder.

The meeting having been thus organized, on motion of B. F. Meyers, the Chair appointed a committee of seven to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee was composed of B. F. Meyers, H. J. Bruner, Esq., J. T. Gephart, Major M. McIlwaine, Capt. John Alstadt, Wm. A. Powell and Sam'l W. Statler.

On motion, the meeting was addressed by Maj. S. H. Tate, who made an eloquent and stirring appeal in behalf of the principles and candidates of the Democracy. The Major never fails to interest his audience and on the present occasion his speech did great credit to himself and was received with marks of unmistakable approbation on the part of his hearers.

After Maj. Tate had concluded, John Cessna, Esq., being loudly called for, appeared and addressed the crowd in a speech which we have never heard surpassed in conciseness of statement, closeness of reasoning and general forcefulness of argument. Mr. Cessna referred with great effect to the position occupied by Geo. W. Williams, the late amalgamation representative in the Legislature from this county, and completely annihilated the excuse set up for Williams by his party, that the anti-amalgamation bill against which he voted, was intended to include mulattos. Mr. Cessna's speech was frequently interrupted with bursts of applause.

At the conclusion of Mr. Cessna's address, O. E. Shannon, Esq., was called for, who responded in a short, but happy and effective effort. Shannon is one of our best speakers and is always listened to with marked attention.

Isaac Hugus, Esq., of Somerset, was the next speaker. Owing to the peculiar political position which Col. Hugus has occupied for some time—it being a well-known fact that his name was signed to the call for Forney's bogus Convention—the Black Republican leaders and wire-workers in this town, when they heard that the Colonel was to make a speech, came flocking into the meeting, expecting, doubtless, that he would throw them a crumb of comfort from the Democratic table. But alas! how chop-fallen! when they heard this gray-headed old champion of Democracy, denounce and rebuke them for their disgusting political heresies. When they heard him appeal to the people of Bedford county to take sides with the white man against the black—when they heard him declare that he believed the Democratic party the only party in the country, when they heard him announce his intention to support the Democratic State Ticket and listened to his eloquent call to all true Democrats to do so likewise; the poor fellows hung their heads in bitterest chagrin and disappointment.

Col. Hugus having concluded his speech, B. F. Meyers, from the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Bedford County re-assert their unalterable attachment to the principles of the National Democratic Party; those principles which, since the days of Jefferson, have formed the ground-work of our nation's prosperity, which under-lie every system of free government, and which are the very essence of the liberty for which the fathers of the Revolution fought and died.

Resolved, That the preservation of the Federal Union, and the peaceful submission of all sections and parties to the compromises of the Constitution, are objects that should be near and dear to the hearts of all true patriots, and that the growing power and bold and reckless conduct of the disunionists, demand that Pennsylvania shall once more enter the lists as the champion of Conservatism and Nationality.

Resolved, That the agitation of the slavery question, is a withering blight to the best interests of the nation, and should be frowned upon and discouraged by every citizen who has the good of the country at heart. It consumes whole sessions of Congress in angry and useless debate; it embitters and debauches our politics; it produces civil war in the Territories; it tends to the degradation of the white man and the elevation of the black; it lights up the torch of insurrection among the slaves of the South; it begets schemes for the dissolution of the Union and does good to none but a few Abolition office-seekers who manage to use it with success as a political hobby.

Resolved, In the language of the Cincinnati Platform, "that we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of a majority of actual residents, whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a Constitution with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States; and further, in the language of President Buchanan, in the "Sillfiman letter," that "when the people, the bona fide residents of a territory, proceed to frame a State Constitution, then it is their right to decide the important question for themselves, whether they will continue, modify, or abolish slavery."

Resolved, That we refer with pride to the Administration of James Buchanan, the first and only President that Pennsylvania ever gave to the Union. Under his faithful and unerring guidance, our government has been eminently successful and our nation greatly prosperous. His policy has given peace to Kansas, order to Utah, protection to the frontier; he has vouchsafed to all sections their Constitutional rights; he has maintained, amid important and complicated negotiations, our rights on the High Seas; he has prosecuted the claims of our citizens against foreign states, with zeal and fidelity; he has done all in his power to suppress the nefarious African Slave trade; he has reduced the expenses of the Federal Government twenty millions, and during the past six months, has conducted the affairs of the P. O. Department without a dollar of appropriations from Congress; he has preserved the Union of the States, amid the clamor of fanatics, the war of sections and the intrigues of base and unprincipled men; he has proved himself the President of the whole country, a national, conservative, dignified Executive, worthy of the party that elevated him to office, worthy of the State that claims him as a citizen, worthy of the mighty nation over which he presides.

Resolved, That in the Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, the present able and learned U. S. Attorney General, we recognize a son of Pennsylvania of whom we may well be proud. We especially commend his recent decision on the question of the rights of naturalized citizens, maintaining as it does, that such citizens are entitled to the same protection, whether at home or abroad, as is guaranteed by our government to citizens born on American soil.

Resolved, That the Hon. Wm. Bigler, U. S. Senator for this State, and the Hon. Wilson Reilly, late member of Congress for this district, deserve our cordial endorsement for the able and faithful manner in which they have represented their constituents.

Resolved, That the course of the Hon. W. P. Schell, in the State Senate, merits our unqualified approbation, and that as a representative of the interests of our county, we believe him to have done faithfully his whole duty.

Resolved, That Geo. W. Williams, late member of the Lower House of the State Legislature, in voting in favor of the indefinite postponement of the bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks, as well as by his vacillating votes on the Extra Pay question, has rendered himself deservedly unpopular and his re-election should be vigorously and steadfastly opposed by all who are unwilling to subscribe to the doctrine of white and black amalgamation.

Resolved, That during the last campaign the Opposition to the Democratic party, promised in all their newspapers and proclaimed from every stump, that if they were successful at the election the hard times then existing would cease; and Resolved further, that as the aforesaid Opposition carried the last election, and as they have done nothing to redeem their promises, the leaders of that party have proved themselves deceitful tricksters, unworthy of the future confidence of the people.

Resolved, That in Richardson L. Wright, of Philadelphia, and John Rowe, of Franklin, the Democratic party of Pennsylvania have a State Ticket composed of honest and capable men and sound and worthy Democrats. We pledge them our enthusiastic and undivided support at the coming election.

Resolved, That the nomination of Gen. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, and Geo. W. Gump, Esq., of Bedford county, as candidates for Assembly, meets with our heartiest approbation and that we will use every honorable effort to secure their election.

Resolved, That the County Ticket nominated by the late Democratic County Convention, is worthy of the support of every true Democrat and that we hereby pledge ourselves, individually and collectively, to labor actively and assiduously for its triumphant election.

The meeting then adjourned with three loud and hearty cheers for the whole State and County Ticket.

☞The Democratic meeting on Monday evening last, was one of the largest that we have ever attended in Bedford. The best feeling prevailed and every body present, with the exception of a few melancholy Abolitionists, seemed greatly pleased with the proceedings. The Court room was crowded to overflowing, many being unable to obtain seats. The Democratic fires are blazing brightly, and, depend on it, on the second Tuesday of October, the glorious light of a sweeping Democratic victory, will beam from every hill-top and in every valley of Bedford county.

—The Abolition Amalgamation meeting on Tuesday night, was in strong contrast with the Democratic meeting the night before. The crowd was much smaller—the speeches a tissue of falsehoods—the enthusiasm, if such it may be called, feigned and spurious. Few country people were present, but the members of the party in the borough, were drummed up, and every town-boy belonging to Abolition parents, was brought out to shout and clap his hands, to give an air of enthusiasm to the meeting. We would suggest that next time they hold a meeting, they give the boys a lot of horns and dinner bells, and tie a tinpan to their principal orator's coat-tails.

Visitors from Somerset.—Isaac Hugus, Esq. formerly Senator for the Somerset and Westmoreland district, Sam'l. Gaither., Esq., Col. J. A. Garman, Sam'l. Walker, Esq., and Dan'l. Heffley, Esq., all of Somerset county, paid us a visit during the present week. They are old and true friends, whom we are always glad to take by the hand.

☞Owing to a press of other matter, our local column is crowded out this week.

NUMBER 157 AGAIN.

The redoubtable Know Nothing Abolition candidate for Associate Judge, has found a defender in that other redoubtable Know Nothing Abolition office-seeker, Fr. Jordan. But such a defender! Well might Mr. Taylor exclaim, "save me from my friends!" Mr. Jordan's defence of his "friend," as he facetiously terms Mr. Taylor, does not make a single point in contradiction of our article on "Number 157." It starts out with the declaration that Mr. Taylor has "incurred the political wrath, and, of course, the abuse of the Gazette." Now we deny most emphatically that we "abused" Mr. Taylor in our former article.—Instead of doing so, we said of Mr. Taylor that we liked him as a neighbor, and our objections to him as given in that article, were purely of a political nature. We say nothing against Mr. Taylor, personally, but we do say, and will continue to say, that as bitter a Know Nothing and Abolitionist as John Taylor, has no right to expect Democrats to elect him to office. But Mr. Jordan denies that his "friend," Mr. Taylor, is an Abolitionist. Will Mr. Taylor answer the following questions in the negative, if he is not an Abolitionist?

Mr. Taylor, did you not, in 1857, vote for DAVID WILMOT, for Governor, who was supported by the Abolitionists of Pennsylvania for that office, and did you not refuse to support Isaac Hazlehurst, the Straight American, anti-Abolition candidate of your party?

Did you not vote, last Fall, for JOHN M. READ, the candidate for Supreme Judge of this State, supported by the Abolitionists?

Would you not vote for WM. H. SEWARD, if nominated by your party for President, the man who recently declared that there is an "irrepressible conflict between freedom and slavery," which will never cease till the cotton and rice-fields of the South shall be cultivated by free labor, or the rye or wheat fields of the North by slave labor?

Will you not vote for Geo. W. Williams, the model Abolition-Amalgamationist, who voted against the Bill to prevent the intermarriage of whites and blacks?

Lastly, as you are still a sworn Know Nothing, never having renounced your oath, would you not be compelled to vote for Gerrit Smith, W. Lloyd Garrison, or any avowed and unadulterated Abolitionist, if nominated by your party?

Let Mr. Taylor answer these questions in the negative, if he dare. He cannot purge himself of his Abolitionism in any other way. We shall see whether he will do it.

Again we warn Democrats against Mr. Taylor's insidious manœuvring and electioneering. He expects to purchase—to buy—Democratic votes, by doing small favors to such Democrats as he thinks will be influenced by them. True Democrats, no matter how poor they may be, never sell their principles, neither for money, nor for leather. Let Mr. John Taylor, alias "Number 157," "shinny on his own side."

Fire!—On Friday night last, between the hours of ten and eleven, it was discovered that the stable belonging, to Mr. Nicholas Lyons, on the lot occupied by O. E Shannon, Esq., was on fire and fast burning to the ground. The building, with its contents, was totally destroyed.

☞Our late court was a slim affair, lasting but two days. The Associate Judges hold an adjourned Court to-day (Thursday.)

CONFEREE MEETING.

The Democratic Conferees from the counties of Bedford and Somerset, met at the Washington House, in Bedford, on Monday, the 29th of August, 1859.

On motion, the conference was organized by the appointment of John Sill, of Bedford county, President, and S. Walker, of Somerset, Secretary.

The following conferees presented their credentials:—

From Bedford county,—John Sill, Hiram Lentz and John Cessna.

From Somerset county,—S. Walker, Jos. A. Garman and Dan'l Heffley.

On motion, Gen'l Alexander H. Coffroth, of Somerset, and George W. Gump, Esq., of Bedford county, were unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidates for the Legislature, for the District composed of the counties of Bedford and Somerset.

On motion, it was unanimously resolved that we recommend both the candidates just nominated, to the people of Bedford and Somerset, as men well qualified to discharge the duties of the offices for which they have been named, and as being in every way worthy of their support.

On motion, adjourned.

S. Walker, Sec'y. } JOHN SILL, President.

Railroad Collision.—Yesterday morning a collision occurred on the Northern Central Railroad, between a freight train, loaded with marble, coming in, and a passenger train bound out from the city, with a number of passengers aboard, en route for the Shrewsbury camp meeting. The engineer of the burden train omitted to take in water at the Relay House, the proper place, and run to the station between Mount Washington and Woodbury. Anticipating a train, he sent forward a man, with instructions to stop any approaching train. The messenger sent neglected to go far enough, and per consequence, the 7 o'clock passenger train from the city came into collision with the burden train. Fortunately the engineer of the passenger train, Malcolm Hassen, saw the danger in time to reverse the engine, and the damage to both trains was comparatively slight. Several of the freight cars were broken, and the engine of the passenger train was slightly damaged.—Baltimore Sun, 24th ult.

☞George W. Gump, Esq., the nominee of the Democracy of Bedford county, for the Legislature, arrived in town on Monday. He was waited upon by a large number of Democrats who were highly pleased with him. Mr. Gump is a good man, a throughgoing Democrat, and we hope to see him triumphantly elected.—Somerset Democrat.

A Black Republican Slave Dealer.—The Ohio Democratic papers are having fine pickings at the expense of Judge Gholson, formerly of Mississippi, whom the Republicans have nominated for the office of Supreme Judge, in place of the late incumbent, Judge Swan, who proved to be too honest for them, having persisted in conforming his decisions to the Constitution and laws, and therefore was superseded by the Nominating Convention and Judge Gholson nominated in his stead. The Democratic papers publish affidavits and bills of sale, showing that Judge Gholson while in Mississippi was a slaveholder and that he sold his slaves before leaving the State. The following are specimens:

Know all Men by these Presents, That we, William Y. Gholson and Elvira Gholson, for and in consideration of Seven Hundred Dollars to us in cash paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged, have bargained and sold and do hereby bargain and sell unto Sarah K. Daggett, wife of Stephen Daggett, ONE NEGRO BOY, NAMED Ned, A SLAVE FOR LIFE, aged about 22 years, TO HAVE AND TO HOLD IN ABSOLUTE PROPERTY: and we WARRANT THE TITLE AND SOUNDNESS of said negro boy.

Given under our hands and seals this 16th day of December, 1844.

W. Y. Gholson, [SEAL.]
Elvira Gholson, [SEAL.]

Know all men by these presents, That we William Y. Gholson and Elvira Gholson, for and in consideration of Seven Hundred dollars to us in cash paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged, have bargained and sold and do hereby bargain and sell unto Stephen Daggett, ONE NEGRO BOY NAMED DAVY, A SLAVE FOR LIFE, aged 19 years, to have and to hold him in ABSOLUTE PROPERTY, and we hereby WARRANT THE TITLE AND SOUNDNESS OF SAID NEGRO BOY.

Given under our hands and seals this 16th day of December, 1844.

W. Y. Gholson, [SEAL.]
Elvira Gholson, [SEAL.]

These bills of sale are certified to by the Clerk of the Probate Court of Pontotoc county, Mississippi.

In addition to the above, says the Cleveland National Democrat, we have the affidavit of Henry Duke, taken before the Clerk of the U. States District Court of Mississippi, that he is now the owner of another slave sold by Gholson to George W. Payne and by the said Payne sold to Duke; and another affidavit, signed by five gentlemen of standing in Pontotoc, taken before the same Clerk, establishing the fact of Gholson being the owner of slaves in Mississippi, and of his sale of them.

This is the way, says the Ohio Statesman, that Judge Gholson manumitted his patrimonial slaves. He parted company with these two boys for the sum of $1,400 to him in cash paid and he left them in Mississippi, slaves for life, while he made his way to Cincinnati with the money in his pockets. That is what the Hamilton county delegates to the Republican State Convention call setting his negroes free, and by which story they completely captured Old Giddings, and he gave his orders that Swan must be defeated, Spalding laid aside, and Gholson nominated.

The Chiriqui Gold Excitement—Great Stampede for the Grave Diggings—One Thousand Dollars out of one Grave.

The Chiriqui gold discoveries form the topic of discussion in the Panama papers. The schooner Carolina had sailed for the region with fifty passengers on board, and another vessel was shortly to leave.

The Panama Star and Herald says:

Letters received in this city from David, dated July 14th, state that the people from all directions continue to flock to the gold diggins, and that the yield of gold obtained from the "huacas" continues undiminished.

A letter received at this office yesterday, from Sir Carlos Wegener, dated June 24th, though rather out of date, contains a few items worth transcribing:

"An old half cast Indian, who lives in Dolega, (Roberto Delsi, whom you probaly know,) who has been in the habit of digging up Indian graves for the sake of the earthenware and piedras de molder generally found therein, took it into his head to dig a little deeper, which brought him to the real grave, where the body is deposited in a coffin of rudely fixed stones and there he found the skeleton of the deceased, together with a beautiful worked "bat" in gold. Since then it has been ascertained that every "huaca" contains gold images in more or less number, the earthenware and other articles having been buried only half way down; and this explains why, up to the present time, so few of the remains of the bodies had been found in the graves.

One man took out of one grave in one day, $1,000 worth of things, among which were three gold plates of the size of desert plates, and the thickness of a stout tin plate, an eagle of the size of a span, and many other animals and insects beautifully manufactured. This is the richest grave that has been found as yet, but none have been opened that have not produced something. The old man who made the discovery kept his secret for some time, and it is reported that he succeeded, in accumulating about $4,000. The place where the first discovery was made is called Bugaba, situated on the other side of the river Piedra, on the road toward the Costa Rica frontier, but as the whole of the foot of Cordilleras in Chiriqui, is full of "huacas," it will take many thousand people many years before the whole will be dug up. The finding of so much worked up gold in the "huacas" is a positive proof that the country must be very rich in gold, and I have no doubt that as soon as the above facts become known to the real mining public, rich and extensive deposits of the ore will be discovered.

Oregon Congressional Election.—Official Returns.—At last we have the full official returns of the late election in Oregon, and they confirm our previous accounts as to the probable result. Lansing Stout, the Democratic candidate for Congress, has been elected by a majority of 45 over his Republican opponent, Logan. This is very unwelcome news to the Black Republican presses of the Atlantic States, which, for a week or so past, have been filled with exultant leaders upon what they considered "the redemption of Oregon," and "the defeat of Joe Lane and Buchanan's administration." Some of them even went so far as to publish a biography of Logan, whom they introduced to their readers, with an air of great triumph, as "the Republican Representative of the new State of Oregon." They will have to take it all back now. Oregon remains a Democratic State, and Joe Lane is still "right side up."—Reading Gazette.

THE AURORA BOREALIS PROBLEM SOLVED.

On Sunday night and Monday morning, there was an unusually brilliant exhibition of the Aurora Borealis, which covered one half of the Northern heavens from East to West. This mysterious light has ever puzzled natural philosophers, who have advanced the most contradictory explanations for the phenomena.—Some have ascribed them to the refraction of the sun's rays from Arctic icebergs; others have believed that the refraction is from Northern ice or snow, and the tremulous motion to be caused by the perpetual vibrations of the earth's atmosphere: but the magnetic telegraph has solved the problem. On Sunday evening, when the sky was perfectly clear, the stars shining and the wind still, the only unusual appearance being the reddening of the Northern and Eastern heavens, one of the operators in the Harrisburg office chanced to touch the wire and was thrown, by the violence of a shock which he received, across the room. At the same time the Superintendent of the Canadian lines of telegraph informs us that the line between Quebec and Farther Point was in perfect working order. Yet it proved impossible to dispatch the foreign news across the wires. The Aurora Borealis had so charged the air with electricity as to partially destroy the insulation. The phenomena of the Northern Lights may therefore be ascribed to electricity, and a long disputed question of science is definitely explained.—Patriot & Union.

Wonderful Escape from Drowning.—A letter from Norfolk in the Richmond Dispatch, states that on Tuesday of last week, Capt. John Doughty was washed from the deck of his sloop about 5 o'clock in the morning, when about five miles at sea, off Smith's Island. The sea was running very high at the time, and, being unable to regain his vessel, he swam towards the shore and attempted to land; the breakers, however, prevented his doing so, and he then swam around the southern end of island, where he made a second attempt; this failed also, and after having passed four miles along the beach, he was taken by a current and washed inside of the capes; here he was picked up by Capt. Conkling, after having been swimming eight hours, and carried into Alexandria, from which place he came to Norfolk and proceeded to his residence in Northampton county, where he will appear as one arisen from the dead, since it was generally supposed that he was drowned. He must have swam nearly fifteen miles, and that with his clothes on, except his boots, which he pulled off in the water.—When rescued he was nearly exhausted, and must have drowned in a few minutes.

A Nut For Abolitionists to Crack.

A colored man, William Braxton, manumitted by the last will and testament of Elijah Greenwell, deceased, of Hampshire county, Va., and who has been enjoying the blessings of freedom among the Abolitionists of Pennsylvania until he has become heartily tired of the blessing, latterly returned to Virginia, and has petitioned the county court of Hampshire to permit him to become the slave of Mr. Samuel House, of that county.

Baltimore Ruffians—A Newspaper Proprietor Attacked—The Assailant Shot.

Baltimore, Aug 26, Henry M. Fitzhugh, one of the proprietors of the Daily Exchange, was assailed this afternoon in an omnibus by a notorious rowdy named Paul Placide. Mr. Fitzhugh drew a revolver and fired three, balls, which took effect in the hand and arm of the assailant. The affair produced considerable excitement.

☞The Columbia Democrat, published at Bloomsburg, by Levi L. Tate, puts up the name of John C. Breckinridge for President, subject to the decision of the Charleston Convention. The Democrat says: "The positive declination of Mr. Buchanan, to be regarded as a candidate for the succession, renders it proper and expedient, that his friends should in due time select a suitable candidate for the standard bearer of the American Democracy. That man, we have every reason to believe, will be Vice President Breckinridge."

Blondin a Myth.—A citizen of Niagara, writes to the New York Times that there is no such person as M. Blondin known in that community—that he has never crossed the Falls on a tight rope, or any other kind of a rope—that he never cooked omelettes, carried a man on his back, stood on his head, turned somersets, or did any other wonderful thing—that, in short, the public have been egregiously humbugged. This is certainly a wonderful revelation, and it rather takes the public all aback. Will the Buffalo Republic, Blondin's organ, be so kind as to give us the facts?

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.

☞When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared that drunkenness was a disease, he enunciated a truth which the experience and observation of medical men is every day confirming. The many insane excesses of those who indulge in the use of spirituous liquors, may be thus accounted for. The true cause of conduct, which is taken for infatuation, is very frequently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in the human system, when deranged, produces a more frightful catalogue of diseases. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of disease, as is too often the case, physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, fewer deaths would result from diseases induced by a deranged state of the Liver. Three-fourths of the diseases enumerated under the head of Consumption, have their seat in a diseased Liver. Dr. M'Lane' celebrated Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., are a certain cure.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FEMING BROS. of PITTSBURG, PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

A VOICE FROM VIRGINIA.

Dr. Seth S. Hance:—I was in Baltimore in April 1854, and from a paper I received of yours was induced to buy a box of your Pills, recommended as a sovereign cure for epileptic fits. At that time one of my servants had been afflicted with fits about 12 years. When reaching home, I commenced with the pills acording to directions. I do not think she has had one since. My wife, though, is somewhat induced to believe she may have had one only. Enclosed you will find five dollars, for which you will please forwrad me two boxes. Your compliance will oblige me Yours respectfully. M. S SLEDGE.

Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills are also sovereign remedy for every modification of nervous diseases. The nervous sufferer, whether tormented by the acute, physical agony of neuralgia, tiedolereux, or ordinary headache, afflicted with vague terrors, weakened by periodical fits, threatened with paralysis, borne down and dispirited by that terrible lassitude which proceeds from a lack of nervous energy, or unnatural condition of the wonderful machinery which connects every member with the source of sensation, and thought—derives immediate benefit from the use of those pills, which at once calms, invigorates, and regulates the shattered nervous organization.

Sent to any part of the country by mail. free of postage. Address SETH S. HANCE, 108 Biltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24.

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT.

TO ALL WANTING FARMS,

A RARE OPPORTUNITY IN A DELIGHTFUL AND HEALTHY CLIMATE 25 MILES SOUTH-EAST OF PHILADELPHIA, ON THE CAMDEN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD, NEW JERSEY.

An old estate consisting of several thousand of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $15 to $20 per acre, the soil of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vineyards and peach orchards, planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from its location, is the BEST IN THE UNION, Products bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price in the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settler has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand.—He can buy every article he wants at the cheapest price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reversed,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown. The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place; good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will sell land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt, meet persons from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held on refusal.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, THE RAILROAD COMPANY GIVES A FREE TICKET FOR SIX MONTHS AND A HALF-PRICE TICKET FOR THREE YEARS.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON.

In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in this place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements or Foundries for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, as it would affect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land: leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia for Hammonton by Railroad, 7½ A. M., or 4½ P. M. Fare 90 cents. When there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better stop with Mr. Byrnes, a principal until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landis & Byrnes, Hammonton P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or S. B. Coughlin, 202 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

Aug. 19, 1859–6m.

SHOE BUSINESS AND FACTORIES CAN be carried on profitably at Hammonton.—See advertisement of Hammonton Lands.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

FEVER AND AGUE,

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale at the Drug Stores fo Drs. Reamer & Harry, Bedford, and all other Druggists in the county.

May 20, 1859–1y.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

The great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, WITHOUT FAIL, the most severe and long-standing

Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of Confirmed Consumption.

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe Diarrhœa proceeding from COLD IN THE BOWELS.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. JACKSON will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

In the Almanac published annually by the proprietors, called EVERYBODY'S ALMANAC, you will find testimony and commendatory notices from all parts of the country. These Almanacs are given away by all our agents.

For sale at the Drug Stores of Drs. Reamer & Harry, Bedford, and all other Druggists in the county.

Opposite St. Clair Hotel,

Daily, except Sundays for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all other Chronic Complaints, complicated with or causing pulmonary diseases, including Catarrh, Heart Disease, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Female Complains, &c. DRS. FITCH & SIKES, would state that their treatment of Consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medecinal Inhalations, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no Curative effect when used alone,) and Invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability on any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of the disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation," for as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in tht lungs.

NOTICE.

All persons are hereby notified that I have purchased at Sheriffs Sale one lot of Tinner Machines, Hand Tools, Patterns &c. Also the entire lot of stock and tin ware in the shop lately occupied by Abraham Herman—as whose property the same was sold.

I also hereby give notice that I have hired said Herman, and will hereafter carry on the Tinning business at the shop formerly occupied by him on Julianna Street. Notice is further given that the Books of said Herman now belong to me and any persens having accounts will please preaent them to Samuel Radebaugh Esq., for settlement without delay.

Feb, 25, 1859. SAMUEL BARNHART.

BEDFORD COUNTY MAP.

I WILL make a directory map of Bedford County from actual surveys, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be raised to justify me in the enterprise.

The map will be large and well finished and will show the location of all the public roads streams, boundary lines, towns, villages, Hotels, Churches, School Houses, Post Offices, stores, grist mills, saw mills &c., &c., and will contain the names of all the property holders, and show the busines that almost each one is engaged in. I will put on the same sheet maps of all the towns and large villages, also tables and statistics of the County and (if taken in time) the census of 1860. Pains will be taken to make it as reliable as any Map in the State.

ALL WANTING FARMS IN A DElightful climate, rich soil, and secure from frosts. See advertisement of Hammonton Lands in another column.

FOR SALE or Trade.

A FARM WITHIN ONE

mile of the Rail Road and two miles of Stonerstown, in the Broad Top Coal region, containing about 160 acres, being good bottom land—about one-half cleared and the balance well timbered. The farm is well improved, and a fine spring of excellent water at the door of the house—also two good orchards of fruit trees on the premises.

ALSO,

A farm in Morrison's cove, adjoining lands of David Stuckey, Berley's heirs, Jacob Furry and others, containing about 200 acres, one half cleared and the balance well timbered, with an abundance of locust and chestnut timber. There are several never failing springs upon the premises with a constantly stream running through the farm. There is also a large and thrifty young orchard bearing fruit thereon. The improvements are a rough cast House, Log Barn and out buildings.

ALSO,

160 acres of land in Harrison County, Iowa, of first class prairie, close to timber and within a few miles of the Missouri river above Council Bluffs.

ALSO,

334 acres in Story county, Iowa.

ALSO,

113 acres in Pottowattamie county, Iowa, near Council Bluffs.

ALSO

Lot no 8 of block 53 in the city of Omaha, Nebraska Territory.

ALSO,

640 acres in Ripley County, Missouri.

—ALSO—

1280 acres of land in Austin county, Texas, East of the Brazos River on the Texas Central Rail Road, which runs through the land. It is well watered being upon the head waters of Cypress Creek.

—ALSO—

220 acres in Comanche county, Texas, on Wresler's Creek, 4 miles East of the Leon River, and on the line of the Memphis and El Passo Rail Road, now in process of construction.

ALSO,

The farm in Morrison's Cove, adjoining Bloomfield Furnace, known as the "Pearson property" lately owned by David Daniels, containing 131 ecres and 60 perches, with excellent orchard of fruit trees thereon and never failing water at the door. The improvements are one large frame House, one log House and barn, with convenient out-buildings. The land is good—produces well and is in a high state of cultivation. A good pike is close by leading to Holliday-burg which with the Furnaces make a ready market at the door for all kinds of produce.

No 26 south Fourth street,

PHILADELPHIA,

Have now on hand a large assortment of Fire and Thief Proof Salamander Safes. Also, Iron Doors for Banks and Stores, Iron Shutters, Iron Sash, all makes of Locks, equal to any made in the United States.

Five Safes in one Fire. All Come out Right, with contents in good condition.

THE SALAMANDER SAFES OF PHILADELPHIA AGAINST THE WORLD.

Evans & Watson

Have had the surest demonstration in the following certificate that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at length fully warranted the representations which have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security against the terrific element:

Philadelphia, April 12th, 1856.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen,—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Ranstead Place, on the morning of the 12th instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

LATE FIRE IN DUBUQUE, IOWA.

DUBUQUE, Jan. 7, 1859.

GENTS:—I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th instant, about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods were destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the sale which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched.

Yours truly,

N. A. McCLURE.
